June 14, 2002

We, Seneca Nation of Indians recognize and value the sobriety and spiritual, mental, emotional and physical wellness of our members and our People. We are aware of and support the need for sobriety and recovery from chemical dependence as key to the success of our organization's group efforts.

Recognizing that greater wellness, also known as Wellbriety, is beneficial to our organization and our wider community, we wholeheartedly support White Bison's efforts in conjunction with SAMHSA and CSAT, in promoting Wellbriety on the individual, family, community and national levels.

Therefore, the above named Tribal Nation or Native American organization supports the proclamation of September, 2002 as National Native American Wellbriety Month.

Sincerely,

Cyrus M. Schindler
President

HELP US SUPPORT THIS EXCITING MOVEMENT!!

If your Tribal Nation, organization or grassroots community group would like to take a role in National Native American Wellbriety Month - September, 2002, we are asking for a letter or proclamation of support to be sent to us at White Bison. Enclosed with this letter of announcement you will find a form letter of proclamation expressing your group's intention to support and promote National Native American Wellbriety Month 2002 in your community. Fill out the attached proclamation giving the name of your organization and your title. Copy it onto your letterhead and mail it back. Better yet, if your tribe or organization already has a Proclamation that you use for other events, please send us that one. Send it back to us at White Bison and then wait for further instructions about the events which will take place leading up to Native American culture specific events in September, 2002, held in conjunction with SAMHSA and CSAT.
